Sali Lake City Drah

Dedication

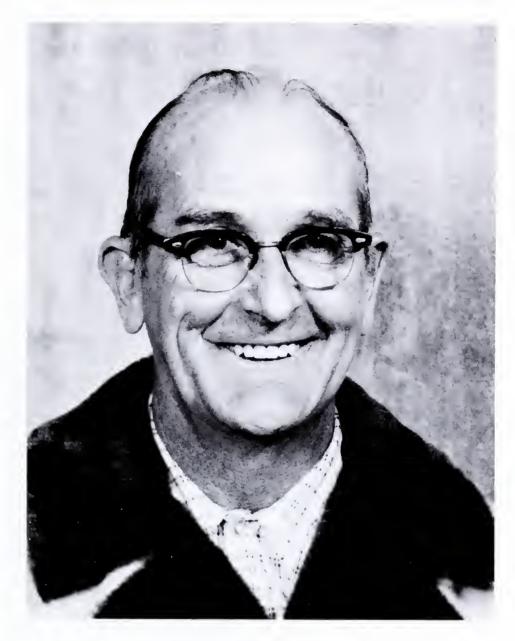

This year, the Hallmark staff dedicates the yearbook to Mr. Ray Wilkerson. Although Ray himself is seldom seen around the school, his presence is evident everywhere. A genius at woodworking, Ray devotes countless hours to projects throughout the school. In every department his handiwork can be seen, whether in simple repairs such as shelves and blackboards, or in major projects, including the remodeling of the gym and the construction of the lower school science lab.

Ray is particularly devoted to the school. For him, no job is too large or too small, and he delights in doing kindnesses for people within the school. He gives bouquets to teachers and staff members in the spring. He has played Santa Claus for school classes, and has donated Christmas trees to lend a festive air to the school lobby. Throughout the grounds his birdhouses can be seen, and this summer he constructed the new drinking fountain and the hanging sign that stand in front of "A" building.

Ray is a gentle man. He is quiet, kind, and generous. He is a man of many talents: a philosopher, a poet, a nature lover, and an artist with a fondness for Mozart. Most of all, Ray is a loving man, and he shows this loving nature in everything he does for the school.

Ray's love and interest for R.H.-S.M. extend far beyond his professional work. After years of silent, seldom recognized service to the school, which started in 1951, we would like to give Ray a public "Thank You" on behalf of the student body.

MR. WILLIAM PURDY Headmaster

Mr. Purdy is known and loved by all the students of Rowland Hall - St. Mark's School. He began teaching on the original staff of St. Mark's in 1956, and has led us through the many changes since. In 1969 he became our headmaster, and keeps in close touch with the student body.

MR. DYLAN EVANS Assistant Headmaster

Since joining us last year, Mr. Evans has become an integral part of Rowland Hall - St. Mark's. While students have kept him busy with dress code enforcement, discipline, and college counselling, his days are, nevertheless, filled with valuable contributions to the school.

And now we are grown, with debts and regrets And broken hearts and sentimental schemes Now every tender failure seems to overthrow old dreams.

To look at anything,
If you would know that thing,
You must look at it long:
To look at this green and say
"I have seen spring in these Woods," will not do - you must
Be the thing you see:
You must be the dark snakes of
Hemp and ferny plumes of leaves,
You must enter in
To the small silences between the leaves,
You must take your time
And touch the very peace
They issue from.

I donate this space to science, for my intended quote was too lengthy. I hope this conforms to accepted standards. We are all boxes on the hillside, and we are all made out of ticky-tacky, and we all look the same. As my cubicle shrinks to allow more to conform, I am engulfed in a sea of ticky-tacky. My world becomes a boot camp and we are all sheep, ready to conform. Therefore, in light of certain restrictions, I offer no quote.

Song for the Asking

Here is my song for the asking. Ask me and I will play So sweetly I'll make you smile.

This is my tune for the taking. Take it! Don't turn away I've been waiting all my life.

Thinking it over, I've been sad. Thinking it over, I'd be more than glad To change my ways for the asking.

Ask me and I will play All the love I hold inside.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Home and School Association is the parent-school organization at Rowland Hall. Through many activities, the Association seeks to inform the school community of important events, provide a forum for discussion of issues, raise funds for improvement projects and special needs, and many other vital functions.

To try to list all these activities here would be futile. Every student is aware of the many benefits, both personal and community, that are made possible each year by the work of the Home and School Association. The student body extends its deep thanks.
